

Right Voice ^{For} YOU

BREAK THROUGH CREATIVITY CLASS
COMING TO EUROPE - SPRING 2010

*If changing your voice required changing your life...
would you be willing?*

*B*lossom *B*enedict is a singer, actress, international voice coach & Access Facilitator. Her classes are unique in that they combine some of the finest voice coaching techniques with simple, yet dynamic tools and processing developed by Gary Douglas, the founder of Access Consciousness, designed to unlock all the barriers keeping you from having the voice you truly desire.

"Aside from the fact that my sales doubled and I won a National Sales Award, everything in my life changed after taking this class! By shifting what was 'stuck' in my voice/being, for the first time I was more present and able to talk, sing, giggle and make choices for me. Who would have thought that a voice class could change your entire life?" Linda, USA
